

Parinaz Zartoshty

*Director of International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) &
Interim Director of Study Abroad and Away (SAA)*

San José State University

Parinaz Zartoshty is the Director of International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) and Interim Director of Study Abroad and Away (SAA) at San Jose State University (SJSU). She has been at SJSU since May 2018. She is responsible for the strategic direction and operations of the ISSS and SAA departments. Parinaz entered the field of international education after having worked for Amnesty International, UNICEF and other smaller nonprofits, both in the U.S. and internationally. Parinaz received her Bachelor's degree from Cornell University in Government/International Relations and her Master's degree in International Relations from Boston University. She recently completed her doctorate degree in Educational Leadership (Ed.D) at SJSU with her research study focused on the interconnected roles of faculty and administrators in promoting comprehensive internationalization. She was the Chair-Designate/Chair of NAFSA's Trainer Corps for 2018-2019. She is the Teaching Learning Scholarship/International Education Leadership representative for NAFSA's Region XII team. Parinaz has presented multiple sessions and workshops, at both regional and national conferences. She was a participant in the Fulbright Japan IEA Seminar in June 2018 and will be participating in the Fulbright IEA seminar for senior administrators in October 2023.