

Minor in Creative Writing

The Creative Writing minor is an opportunity for students to earn academic credit for producing imaginative works of Fiction, Creative Nonfiction, Poetry, and Screen writing/Dramatic writing. The minor fosters the development of diverse voices within a creative writing community, each member committed to helping one another improve as writers, readers, and creative-thinkers. Students also have the opportunity for hands-on publishing by working on SJSU's award-winning Reed Magazine.

Course Requirements: 18-19 Units

Lower Division: (3 Units)

ENGL 71: Creative Writing

Upper Division: (12 Units)

ENGL 130: Writing Fiction

ENGL 131: Writing Poetry

ENGL 133: Reed Magazine

ENGL 135: Writing Nonfiction

Literature Courses:

(Complete one of the following courses,
3-4 Units)

Scan for a list of literature courses

