

Campus Village 3

The next planned addition to SJSU's student housing stock brings more Spartans to the core of San José's vibrant urban community.

This new campus environment channels SJSU's proud spirit of learning, collaboration, and innovation in the heart of Silicon Valley. Clean lines, fresh and airy spaces and a modern living experience make CV3 a premier student living destination.

go.sjsu.edu/CV3

452,360 GSF
12 stories in height

1,007 Beds
New student housing

517 Affordable
Beds
Substantially below market rate

900 Capacity
Dining Hall

260 Units - Phase I
26 units per residential floor

171 Units - Phase II
19 units per residential floor

Welcome Center
Ground floor of CV3, Phase I

1 Minute Walking Distance
To the Spartan Recreation and
Aquatic Center (SRAC)

San José State University is rebuilding and renewing its main campus to better serve students for generations to come. With this new student housing project, SJSU is investing in the success and housing security of Spartans living on campus and enhancing the student experience.

