Prerequisites:	WST; upper-division standing. Completion of or co-registration in 100W is strongly recommended
GE/SJSU Studies Category:	V

Course Description

Interdisciplinary exploration of human rights instruments, institutions, and notable human rights campaigns. The historical development of human rights and contemporary threats to the realization of fundamental dignity for humans and non-humans will also be explored.

GE Area: V Prerequisite: Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL/LLD 100A with a C or better (C-not accepted), completion of Core General Education and upper division standing are prerequisites to all SJSU studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended. Note: All SJSU Studies courses require completion of the WST and upper division standing.

Course Format

Technology Intensive, Hybrid, and Online Courses

This is a fully online course. Students must have access to a computer, and must be able to connect to the Internet and the Canvas course website to complete course activities and submit required assignments.

Faculty Web Page and MYSJSU Messaging

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on Canvas Learning Management System course login website at <http://sjsu.instructure.com>. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal <http://one.sjsu.edu> to learn of any updates. For help with using Canvas see Canvas Student Resources page (http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/teaching-tools/canvas/student_resources)

Course Goals

JS 171 is designed to introduce students to human rights in law, politics, and action by exploring the theme “Human Rights Begin Close to Home.” The class will adopt an interdisciplinary approach to human rights in historic and contemporary contexts to evaluate the following:

- What are the historical events and social movements that led to the development of human rights?
- How are human rights defined through international law?
- Who gets to decide what these rights are and how they are realized?
- How has the concept of “human rights” evolved over time, in different domestic and international contexts?
- How have people struggled to define and realize fundamental rights and/or dignity, and to what effects?
- Where human rights have been defined, why/where/how/by whom have they been violated? How can human rights concepts shape remedies to such violations?
- How does a discourse of fundamental “right” and/or “dignity” affect the way we understand, articulate, and respond to various social problems?
- How do human rights struggles and scholarship shape culture, policy, and social activism in our local and global communities?
- What can SJSU students do to ensure that “human rights begin close to home”?

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

“Students are strongly encouraged to take courses to satisfy GE Areas R, S, and V from departments other than their major department.”

Upon successful completion of this GE course, students will be able to:

1. GELO 1 - Compare systematically the ideas, values, images, cultural artifacts, economic structures, technological developments, and/or attitudes of people from more than one culture outside the U.S.

This learning objective will be assessed through human rights current events reports, exams, and written assignments.

2. GELO 2 - Identify the historical context of ideas and cultural traditions outside the U.S. and how they have influenced American culture.

This learning objective will be assessed through reflections on assigned readings, analyzing documentary films, and successful completion of written assignments and exams.

3. GELO 3 - Explain how a culture outside the U.S. has changed in response to internal and external pressures.

This learning objective will be assessed through human rights current events reports, exams, documentary film reviews, and writing exercises.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. CLO 1 - Read, write, and contribute to discussion about domestic and international human rights issues at a basic level.
2. CLO 2 - Recognize and access human rights instruments defining “human rights” according to international law (such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights) via online and library resources.
3. CLO 3 - Recognize and access the reports of central oversight agencies and non-governmental organizations, such as Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch, that report on human rights abuses to the United Nations and global populace.
4. CLO 4 - Compare and contrast how “rights” and “dignity” have been defined by and for various cultures throughout the world.
5. CLO 5 - Apply an interdisciplinary human rights framework to analyze social problems, policies, and practices in the U.S.

Course Requirements and Assignments

A student’s final grade is based on points earned for completing several assignments and activities, including demonstrating knowledge of course readings, completing written assignments, and participating in online discussions.

University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>) requires the following language to be included in the syllabus:

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

Assignments

- 1) Human Rights Current Event Reports (2 reports worth 10% each for 20% of final grade)
- 2) Homework Assignments and Quizzes (40% of final grade)
- 3) Human Rights Film Review (15% of final grade)
- 4) Final Exam (25%)

- 1) Human Rights Current Event Reports (2 reports, worth 10% each for 20% of final grade)

Students will subscribe to and read Human Rights Watch’s Daily Brief. Sign up for the Daily Brief email here: <https://action.hrw.org/page/36941/subscribe/1>

Students will complete two human rights current event reports related to course topics. One report will examine a human rights issue in international context, another will examine a human rights issue in the local / U.S. context.

The student will write a report that provides a concise explanation of the event/issue, a description of the relevance of specific human rights / treaties to the issue, tactics of advocacy organizations, and the student’s thoughts/observations/critiques regarding the current event and what should be done about the issue. Post a link to the news article and your analysis to the “Human Rights in the News – Current Events” Discussion on Canvas.

Students should post substantive comments and discussion on at least three other students’ human rights current event reports.

Learning Outcomes: GELO 1, GELO 2, and GELO 3; CLO 1 and CLO 3.

Grading and Due Dates:

Each report is worth 10% of the final grade. Post one Human Rights Current Event Report by 11:59 p.m. on January 10, 2022; the second report is due by 11:59 p.m. on January 17, 2022.

- 2) Homework Assignments and Quizzes (40% of final grade)

Students will provide written responses to prompts for each Module and complete quizzes on assigned readings and current events from the HRW Daily Report.

Learning Outcomes: GELO 1, GELO 2, and GELO 3; CLO 1, CLO 2, CLO 3, and CLO 4.

Grading:

Homework Assignments will be graded on a 10-point scale, rubrics included in each prompt.

Quizzes will be graded on a 10-point scale. Together, Homework Assignments and Quizzes are worth 40% of the final grade. Due dates on Canvas.

3) Human Rights Documentary Film Review

(15% of final grade)

Students will view a human rights documentary and write a 2-page (single-spaced, 12-point font) assessment of the film, describing the human rights issue(s) it addresses, advocacy strategies, and the actions of government(s) in response to the human rights issue.

Learning Outcomes: GELO 1, GELO 2, and GELO 3; CLO 1, CLO 2, CLO 4, and CLO 5.

Grading and Due Date:

This assignment will be graded on a 100-point scale based on a standard rubric. The film review is worth 15% of the final course grade. Post the film review to Canvas by 11:59 p.m. on January 18, 2022.

4) Final Exam

(25% of final grade)

The final exam will require students to recall and apply human rights discourse and instruments to analyze contemporary social problems (domestic and international). The final is comprehensive, and will include a variety of multiple choice and essay questions. Students should expect the final to cover all significant class readings and activities, including films and lectures.

The final is due on Canvas by 11:59 p.m. on January 21, 2022.

Learning Outcomes: GELO 1, GELO 2, and GELO 3; CLO 1, CLO 2, CLO 3, CLO 4, and CLO 5.

Grading:

The final is graded on a 100-point scale; essay answers are graded based on a standard rubric by the instructor (see Canvas). The Final Exam is worth 25% of the final course grade.

Grading Information

Course assignments and exams are weighted as described above. Descriptions of assignment requirements and rubrics are posted for each assignment on Canvas.

This course will be graded using the +/- system on final grades based on the following percentages:

- A plus = 100 to 97 percent
- A = 96.9 to 94 percent
- A minus = 93.9 to 90 percent
- B plus = 89.9 to 87 percent
- B = 86.9 to 84 percent
- B minus = 83.9 to 80 percent
- C plus = 79.9 to 77 percent
- C = 76.9 to 74 percent
- C minus = 73.9 to 70 percent
- D plus = 66 to 69.9 percent
- D = 63 to 65.9 percent
- D minus = 60 to 62.9 percent
- F = 59.9 percent or lower

A "C" or higher is required to receive credit for this course toward a Justice Studies or Forensic Science Major.

No Extra Credit

No extra credit will be given; complete all assignments in a timely fashion to maximize your scores on course assignments, discussions, and activities.

Penalty for Late or Missed Work

Be sure to submit assignments before the due date. Late work will not be accepted without a documented excuse, and will result in a “0” (zero) grade for the assignment. If you know you will be unable to meet a deadline, email the professor in advance of the due date.

Grading Information for General Education Upper Division Courses (R, S, V)

“Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL/LLD 100A with a C or better (C- not accepted), and completion of Core General Education are prerequisite to all SJSU Studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended. A minimum aggregate GPA of 2.0 in GE Areas R, S, & V shall be required of all students.”

Classroom Protocol

1. This course depends on student participation, discussion, and interaction. Prepare for class to ensure you can contribute to discussion and debate. Students are expected to complete all readings and assignments by the dates indicated on the syllabus. Be sure to check the course Canvas website regularly for updates.
2. All class participants are expected to foster an environment that encourages rigorous academic discussion and respectful participation, rather than silencing others (be respectful to one another, do not insult or intimidate others, evaluate alternative views with an open mind, check and provide facts to support analysis).
3. Readings about human rights abuses, injustice, discrimination, and violence can be challenging intellectually, personally, and emotionally. All students are encouraged to reflect on the course materials mindfully and engage in self-care; contact the professor if you are struggling with a particular topic or reading. If you or a friend is in need of emotional or mental health support, please visit SJSU’s Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) www.sjsu.edu/counseling service. Phone: (408) 924-5910. Location: Student Wellness Center, Room 300.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9 (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>), relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on Syllabus Information web page (<http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo>), which is hosted by the Office of Undergraduate Education. Make sure to visit this page to review and be aware of these university policies and resources.

Justice Studies Reading and Writing Philosophy

The Department of Justice Studies is committed to scholarly excellence. Therefore, the Department promotes academic, critical, and creative engagement with language (i.e., reading and writing) throughout its curriculum. A sustained and intensive exploration of language prepares students to think critically and to act meaningfully in interrelated areas of their lives—personal, professional, economic, social, political, ethical, and cultural. Graduates of the Department of Justice Studies leave San José State University prepared to enter a range of careers and for advanced study in a variety of fields; they are prepared to more effectively identify and ameliorate injustice in their personal, professional and civic lives. Indeed, the impact of literacy is evident not only within a specific course, semester, or academic program but also over a lifetime.
